Copyright & Licensing

Copyright

All FIU users must respect the copyrights in works that are accessible through computers connected to the FIU network. No copyrighted work may be copied, published, disseminated, displayed without permission of the copyright holder except in accordance with fair use or licensed agreement.

Downloading and disseminating full-text articles in bulk for commercial purposes is strictly prohibited. The Medical Library and the FIU University Library may terminate the network access of users who are found to have repeatedly infringed the copyright of others.

Licensing Restrictions

Access to licensed electronic resources are restricted to members of the FIU community and to on-site users of FIU libraries for purposes of research, teaching, and private study. The access to a few resources may be restricted to the College of Medicine students, faculty, and staff.
